

For Immediate Release
March 11, 2024

The Preservation Society to Host Job Fair April 3

Join the Newport Mansions Team

NEWPORT, R.I. – If you are seeking a career change or just want a new beginning, don't miss The Preservation Society of Newport County's free job fair.

This event will be held Wednesday, April 3, from 3-7 p.m. EDT inside the Preservation Society headquarters at 424 Bellevue Ave., Newport, R.I.

With approximately 30 part-time and full-time positions in an array of fields, there will be a wealth of exciting opportunities for job seekers. Bring your resume and apply and interview in person. Meet current employees and find out what it's like to be a member of the Newport Mansions team. Parking is free and there will be refreshments.

Part-time positions offer a regular schedule throughout the year. There are also seasonal employment opportunities available during tourism season, from early April through the end of the year. In most cases, seasonal employment ends in the winter and is renewed the following April.

Full-time positions include benefits such as access to health, dental and vision insurance, a 403(b) retirement plan, and family membership in the Preservation Society. Part-time positions include a 403(b) retirement plan and family membership.

Anyone who would like to join our talented community of volunteers should also visit this job fair. Internship opportunities are also available.

To learn more, go to www.newportmansions.org/about-us/careers-internships.

The Preservation Society of Newport County, Rhode Island, is a nonprofit organization accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. It is dedicated to preserving and interpreting the area's historic architecture, landscapes, decorative arts and social history. Its 11 historic properties – seven of them National Historic Landmarks – span more than 250 years of American architectural and social development.

#